Low points for the season were Robert Fairbanks' leg and the disappointing loss to Jackson High.

Making the Cheers "Tier"-ifific

This year the cheerleading squads attended the Citizen Patriot invitational. The varsity took 4th and the JV took 3rd. Coach Ewing commented on the team by saying, "They worked better together than usual. They looked real good and did their very best."

The cheerleaders spent a lot of time working on things after school to promote the school spirit. Some projects were to make posters, lead in the pep assembles, decorate lockers, bake Homecoming cakes for every member of the football team, give football stickers to all the players, and have a bike-a-thon to raise money.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was a delightful comedy about two elderly spinsters (Cathy Smith and Tammy Gerstung) who poisoned lonely old men, sending them into the peace of eternity. The plot was expanded by the nephew (Dave Wolber) who was trying to get his delusional Uncle Teddy (Dave Paulson), who believed he was Teddy Roosevelt, committed.

The plot was complicated by the true villain (Larry Goldsmith) and his plastic surgeon and sidekick, Dr. Einstein (Kurt Meserva), who were attempting to hideout from the police and intimidate the old ladies. The entire family of "mad" Brewsters was truly entertaining.

1. Teddy remembers the good ol' days.
2. The sinister Jonathon Brewster takes advantage of the Brewster sisters hospitality.

In Memoriam

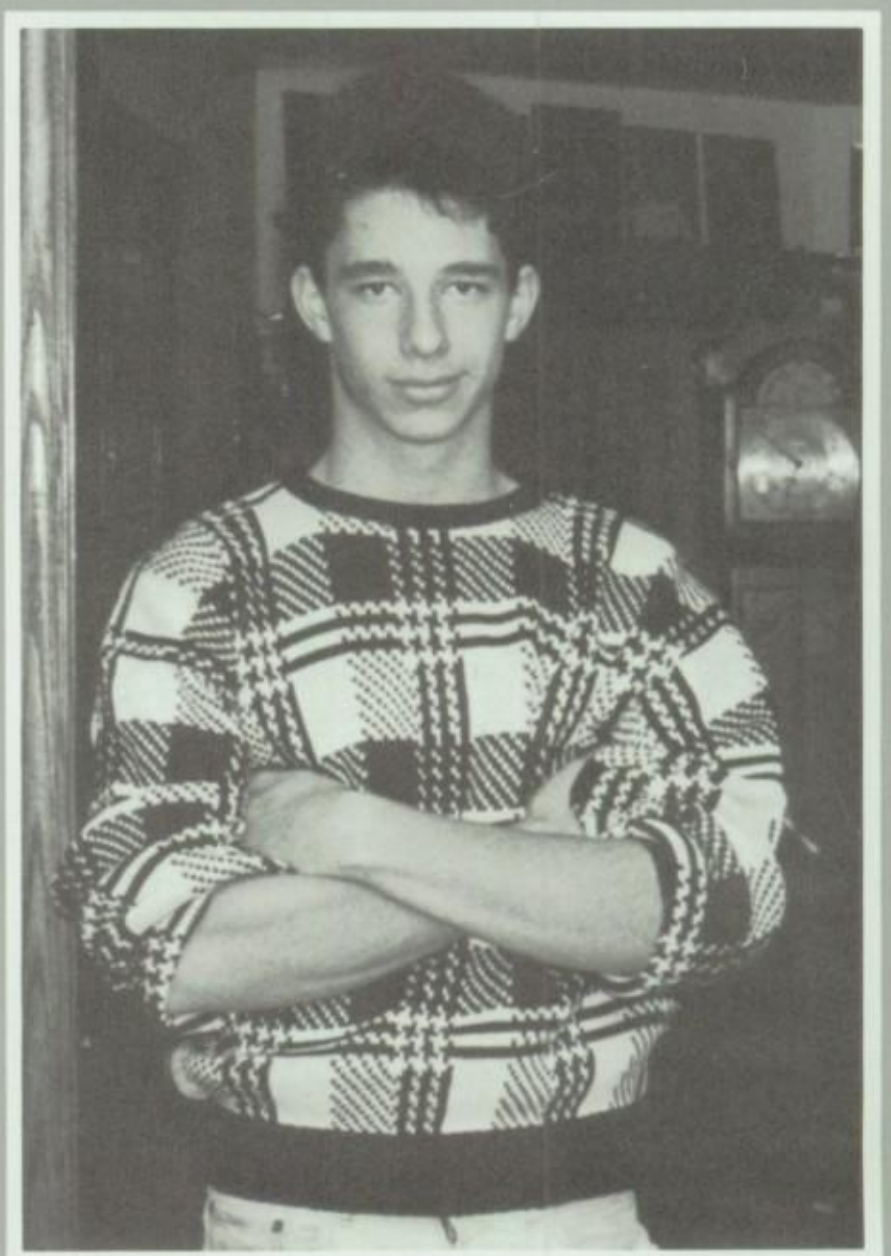
Matthew F. Maxson

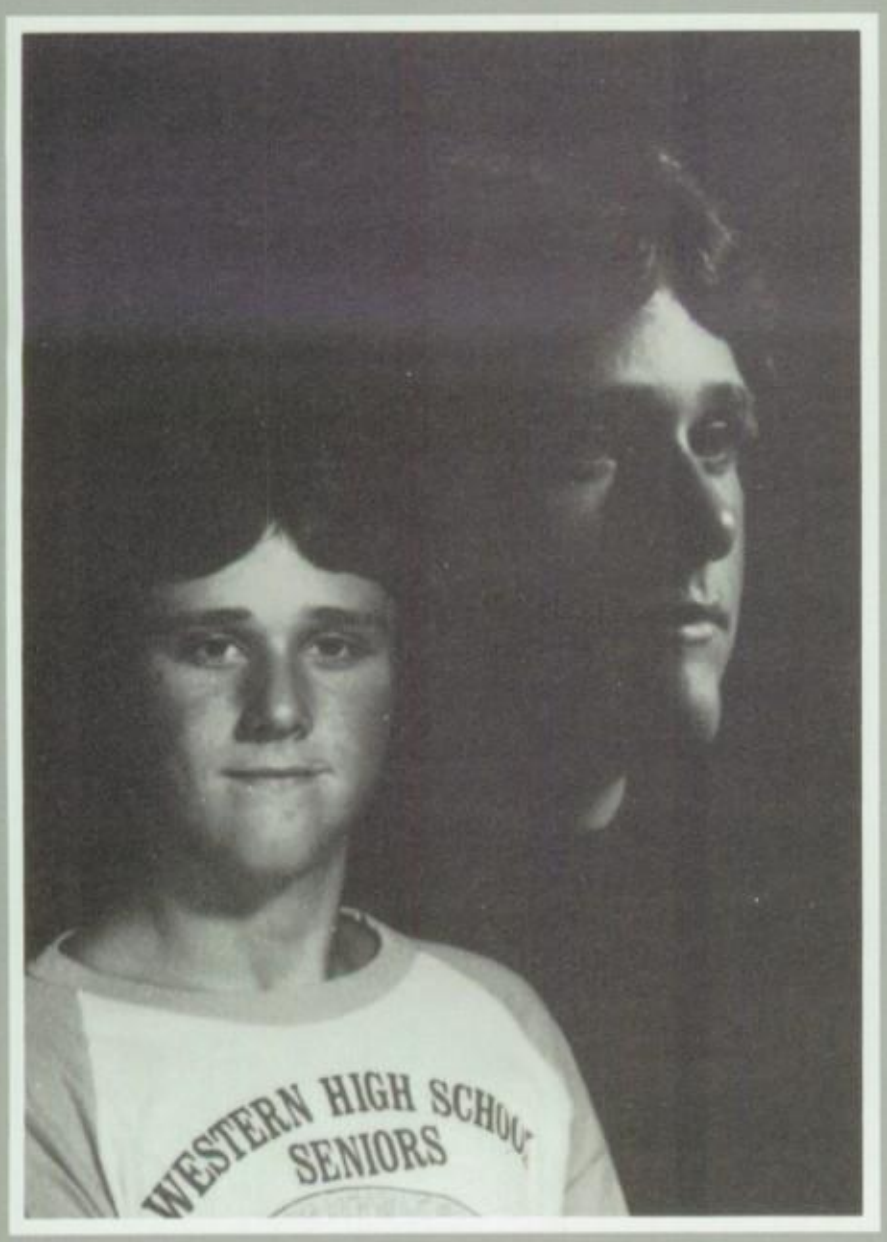
July 26, 1969-February 17, 1987

The loving times you shared with everyone, the memories of your laughter and the never ending fun. You were always loved by all in more ways than you knew. The personality you obtained was that which reflected you. You are sadly missed by all, the loved ones left behind, but you'll finally be living the life you were always looking to find.

You gave it all you had, sometimes it got a little rough, but God wanted you with Him and for us that's reason enough, because in that world you're in, is a place we all someday want to be, with peace, love and laughter. Most of all....tranquility. So all the time you're in our thoughts, we should never feel lonely or sad. We should hold onto how it used to be and the times which we once had.

by Dori Stiles





Buford W. Ball, Jr.

July 26, 1969-May 23, 1987

Never say goodbye...Never say goodbye.
You and me and my old friends
Hoping it would never end.
Never say goodbye...Never say goodbye.
Holding on, we've got to try.
Holding on to never say goodbye.

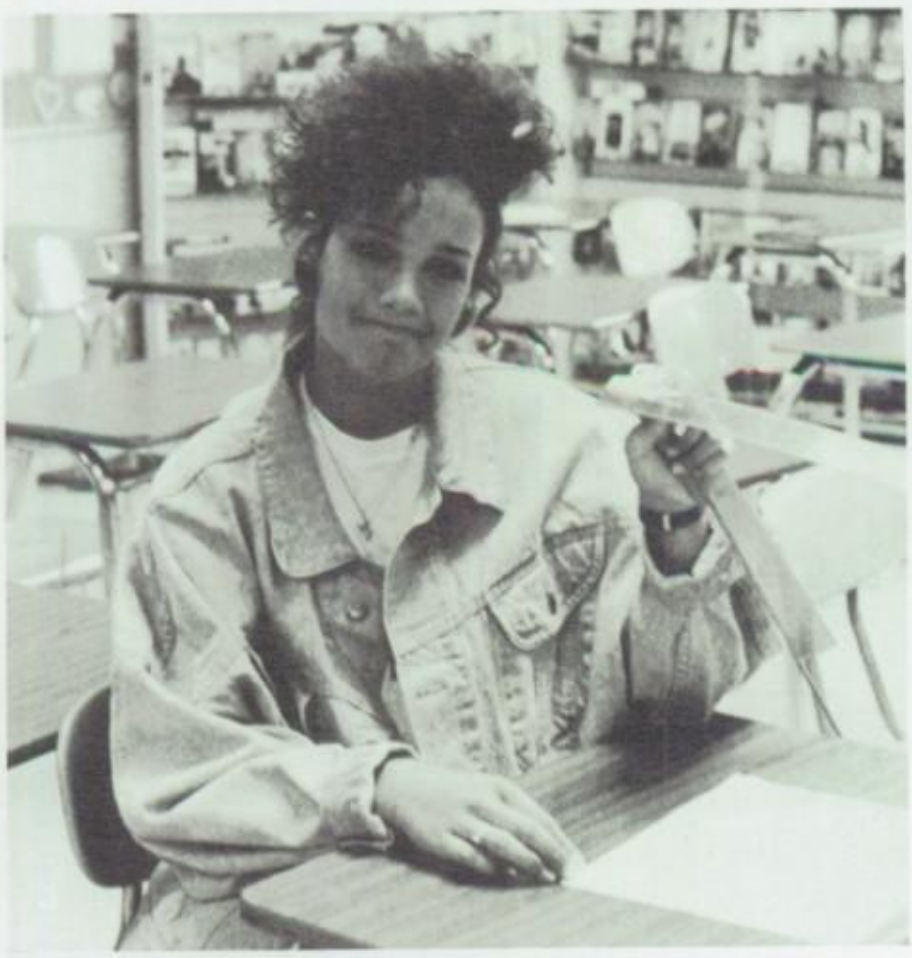
To the student body and faculty:
I present to you the 1986-87 yearbook. Each of the pictures, captions, and copy truly represent life at WHS. Special thanks should be made to Mrs. Ennis and Rebecca Ennis for helping with layouts, Mrs. Deverell for opening the computer lab when deadlines came around, Mr. Dewland, Mr. Lawrence, and Bylerlys for the wonderful pictures, Mr. Goodrich for all the life-saving advice, and finally, my friends (including the staff members), family, and faculty who always cooperated, supported, and stood by me as the year progressed.
Sue Barber Editor-in-Chief



1. Sue Barber uses up the last of the film.
2. Being baffled is part of the task as Renee Bourdeaux can't find the perfect picture.
3. "Now what?" asks Beth Lawrence as she holds up a broken cropper.
4. "Just because everyone else runs, I'll smile!" grins Robin Eiler.
